Democratic Plan of Organization.

The plan of organization of 1883, has been adopted, with slight changes, as follows:

STATE COMMITTEE.

There shall be a State central committee, composed of a chairman, to be elected by the convention, and of five members from each Congressional district. Said five members shall be nominated by the delegates to the State convention from their respective Congressional districts; provided that such nominations shall be made by at least a majority and shall be confirmed by the State convention.

In default of such nominations being made by any district or districts, the president of the convention shall make the appointments therefor. Vacancies in any such delegation, after the same shall have been formed, shall be filled by the State central committee upon the nomination of the remaining members from such district. In case of vacancy in the office of chairman the position shall be filled by the State central committee.

The State committee thus constituted is charged with the affairs of the party, and shall have power to perfect its organization and direct its conduct in obedience to the declarations and policy of the party as the same shall be set forth by this convention.

It may decide all questions at issue which may arise in election districts calculated to affect the harmony and interest of the party; but the respective districts represented in convention shall manage their own district affairs.

The State committee shall meet at such times and places as they may themselves determine, but especially at such time and place as the executive committee may designate.

The State central committee shall have power to call State conventions and to fix the basis of representation therein.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

There shall be an executive committee of not more than ten persons, to be appointed by the chairman of the State central committee, who shall be ex officio chairman of the executive committee.

The executive committee shall have no powers except those delegated to it by the State committee as the same shall be laid down from time to time by that committee, or herein expressed—to wit:

It shall appoint its own secretary and such assistants as he shall require during a campaign.

It shall appoint a treasurer from outside its own body, who shall be subject to such rules as it may adopt for his guidance.

It shall keep a record of the names and post-office address of the chairman of each city and county committee, with whom it will hold regular correspondence.

It shall have printed such circulars, instructions, or forms as it may deem necessary for use in organizing the party.

It shall collect from the cities and counties of the State such an amount of funds as may be assessed by the State committee for the proper conduct of the campaign, and, when necessary, solicit individual contributions from members of the party in such manner as it may deem best.

It shall appoint and provide for mass-meetings in each division of the State, making such arrangements with the local committees as may be necessary, bearing such proportion of the expense of each as its funds will permit.

It shall give notice in regard to the registration of voters, urging the city and county committees to active exertion so as to secure full registration in all of its details.

It shall have published all addresses, resolutions, appointments of canvassers, &c., as the State committee may direct in the democratic papers of the city of Richmond, and as far as possible in all other democratic papers of the State.

It shall have for a quorum for the transaction of business three of its members. A member unable to attend may in writing appoint a proxy for one or more meetings.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The organization of the party in each congressional district to be under the supervision of the members of the central committee from that district.

The members of the State central committee residing in the several congressional districts shall constitute the district committees, who shall have power to call district conventions, fix the times and places for holding the same, the number of delegates, and prescribe the mode and manner of appointing them, and shall have charge of the canvass in such district.

The county committees shall assess the several precincts for such funds as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the county canvass, and the congressional committees as to them may seem best for the congressional canvass.

ORGANIZATION FOR SENATORIAL DISTRICTS.

The several chairmen of the county or county and city committees, constituting a senatorial district, shall be the senatorial committee for such district; provided that when a senatorial district consists of a single city or county the committee for such city or county shall be the senatorial committee for such district.

Each senatorial committee shall have power to call senatorial district conventions, fix the time for holding the same, prescribe the number of delegates and the mode and manner of their appointment.

CITY AND COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

Wherever a party organization exists in any county, city or town, working or prepared to work for our party, such organization to continue until after the adjournment of the next State convention, and until their successors are elected, and the county or city chairman to convene at once his committee and fill by appointment of the acting members all vacancies.

When no organization prepared to labor for our party exists, the members of the central committee from the congressional district wherein the county lies shall appoint a county chairman, who shall at once organize a committee by an election in the county at a public meeting to be held at the earliest convenient moment, the committee to consist of two or more members from each magisterial district.

County committees not already supplied with such officers shall immediately upon their formation proceed to the election of a secretary and treasurer.

County and city committees shall forthwith appoint precinct committees, consisting of five or more active working democrats from each voting precinct. Such precinct committees shall prepare lists of all the voters in their respective voting precincts, ascertaining and recording the political proclivities of each voter, which list shall be furnished, when completed to the county or city secretary, and by him recorded in a book, whereupon the originals shall be returned to the precinct committee.

The precinct committee shall visit every voter prior to an election; shall see to the question of registration and transfers; shall furnish the voter all necessary information to that end, and shall be charged with the duty of procuring his vote to be properly cast.

When, in the judgment of the precinct committee, their number shall be increased, they may enlarge it by their own appointment. They shall elect a chairman, secretary, and treasurer.

The county or city committee shall convene on the call of the chairman, or upon the written request of a majority of its members for the transaction of the business of the party.

The State central committee referred to the executive committee the resolution adopted relative to the plan of organization, and requested them to construe said resolution as to the necessity of the reorganization of city and county committees.

In reference to this matter the committee adopted a resolution declaring that it is the function of the State committee to formulate a proper plan of organization and to invite conformity thereto by the party throughout the State, so that the organization may be uniform. But they do not seek to dictate what shall be done. Each city and county must determine for itself whether its plan of organization is in conformity with that adopted by the Roanoke convention.

The capital stock of this company is $625,000, divided into 625,000 shares of $1 each.

The company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia, and the stock is non-assessable, and carries with it no personal liability to the holder.

THE GOLD MINING COMPANY (location, Music Mountains, A. T.) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for.

A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days.

The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value.

Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR.

There is no better stock on the market for a permanent investment. For full information in regard to this Mine apply to the
